FOOD The management has kindly arranged for us to have a reserved area in the pub and also we have access to the stable barn at the rear of the pub for changing (only one room, unfortunately).

They would like us to provide them with advance notice of food requirements (so they don't run out of a particular item on the menu). This is not a hard and fast commitment, but it would be helpful if you could keep to your selection if possible. The menu is given in the following link and includes a "2 meals for £11.49" offer, which is very good value:-
